Thank you for completing the 2003-2004 CHEF Church School Survey. We pledge to keep the information confidential as we use it to minister to home school families across Alabama. If you indicated your consent, we will provide information where applicable to persons who call our office and on our website, www.chefofalabama.org. This will enable us to fulfill our purpose of acting as a clearinghouse for information of interest to home educators. Your school will be added to our administrators' email list and you will be able to discuss important issues with other administrators from across the state, and you will be notified by email and by regular mail of events that might be beneficial to your school families.
